2018 REGIONAL FORUMS

SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF HEALTH: EMPLOYMENT AND INCOME SUPPORTS

NOVEMBER 19, 2018

This Regional Forum will focus on “Social Determinants of Health: Employment and Income Supports.” Through this informative and engaging presentation, participants will explore employment and income relative to social determinants of health. They will learn about the impact of work on all facets of life and the challenges faced by individuals with behavioral health disorders in obtaining and maintaining gainful employment. Participants will be challenged to approach treatment in a way, which encourages employment as a change agent and will hear first-hand from individuals with lived experience about the life changing benefits of work.

This training will be presented by Kris Wright, LCPC from the Evidence Based Practice Center at the University of Maryland School of Medicine’s Department of Psychiatry; Glenn Washington, Peer Support Specialist, at People Encouraging People; T-Kea Blackman, Peer Career Advancement Specialist, at the Maryland Employment Network; and Keirstyn Silver, Program Director, at the Maryland Employment Network. CEU’s will be available for this presentation.***
